STORY OF ANAHITA

Anahita (ahn-heet-ah), patroness of women, was an ancient Persian goddess of earth, water, and fertility. Known as “the immaculate one.”

TASTING NOTE

She was humming a tune out of time... at once familiar, but also new and unheralded. After she passed... it's all you could think about.

“Did that just happen? Why do I smell apples? Today is a good day!” Our Riesling connects to the palate with charm, and a slightly wicked wizardry. Like remembering that fleeting moment, you'll perceive granny smith crispness and clean lemony hints that are framed by mineral tones of granite.

PAIR WITH

She'll sing that tune even louder when paired with fried starters, aiolis, and any good, firm cheese that leans towards nutty.
